What of taking your language and just deleting the last phrase. The section would then read :
 THE PROVISIONS OF THIS SECTION SHALL NOT BE DEEMED TO PROHIBIT SCHOOL DISTRICT POLICIES THAT FORBID USE LEGAL PRODUCTS BY DISTRICT EMPLOYEES AT OFFICIAL SCHOOL DISTRICT EVENTS.

The last phrase of the prposed amendment could be construed in a manner which would be overly broad. Arguably if a district employee was in a restaurant mall etc. where students were present the employeee could not smoke. If it is possible to limit the exception to district events or to occassions when district employees were present in their capacity as such it would be prefereable. Not a huge issue but a change would preclude the adoption of overly rigorous policies.
